

THE VOICE OF THE CONVEYOR INDUSTRY OF THE AMERICAS

CEMA MEMBERS IN THE NEWS

September / October 2017

Tony Sartin Selected as Inaugural 'Loberg Award' Recipient

Hytrol is proud to announce that Tony Sartin, Hytrol's customer care manager, was selected as the recipient of the company's inaugural 'Loberg Award'. Established as part of the annual Loberg Day festivities, the Loberg Award is presented to an employee who exemplifies Hytrol founder Tom Loberg's character and his values: empathy, humility, gratitude and hard work. Each recipient of this award is nominated by fellow Hytrol employees. Hytrol President David Peacock said employees like Sartin are ..click here.

MORE NEWS

Superior Industries 'Doug Lambert' is profiled on Pit & Quarry's Profile

With a career spanning four decades, Doug Lambert has experienced the aggregate industry from the standpoints of a producer, a manufacturer, and a dealer. Family ties brought Lambert into the industry, over 40 years ago!

Maxi-Lift hires new Technical Sales Specialist for the Great Plains region

Matt Porter joined Maxi-Lift team in August with over 40-years of experience and a major in Animal Science and a minor in Agricultural Business Management from Penn State University, Matt will focus on driving sales and increasing territory market share.

New Spiral Chutes from DORNER Provide a Gentle, Economical Way to Move Product

Gravity has never been more useful! The new Spiral Chutes from Dorner are an economical way to gently move product down to a lower level....with gravity doing all the work. As the product enters the Spiral Chute, gravity takes over to safely slide packages down to the lower level. Spiral Chutes' patent-pending stair step design ensures products won't get stuck or jammed when being lowered from overhead conveyors, mezzanines or platforms.

Weld Training Program Paying Off for Superior Industries

While some manufacturers face a shortage of skilled welders and long delays in filling open positions, Superior Industries in Morris, Minnesota has deepened its pool of qualified workers with an uncommon- yet direct

Share

Tweet

Forward

KWS CARES Program Raises Over $200,000 for Employees in Need

KWS CARES, an employee assistance program has raised over $200,000 and helped 19 individuals with financial assistance in time of need. CARES stands for Compassion, Action, Respect, Esteem, and Support. Bill Mecke, P.E., President of KWS, states "The KWS CARES program provides financial assistance when an employee is facing a crisis. Employees can donate vacation time and money to a CARES fund for an individual in crisis.

Allen Robinson of KWS Manufacturing Co., Ltd. Promoted to Quality Manager

KWS proudly announces that Allen Robinson has been promoted to Quality Manager with responsibility for continually improving all aspects of quality at the company. Allen has been KWS for over 4 years as Quality Inspector and is an ASME Authorized Inspector.

Dorner Trost Joins Maxi-Lift in Technical Sales

Brad Trost was recently hired as a Technical Sales Specialist for the Midwest region. Brad graduated from Hamline University with majors in Political Science and Economics. Brad has worked primarily in the Power Transmission industry after completing his degree. Brad joined the Maxi-Lift team in September with a focus on driving sales and increasing territory market share.

About Conveyor Equipment Manufacturers Association

The Conveyor Equipment Manufacturers Association (CEMA) is a premier organization whose member companies (Manufacturers and Engineering Companies) represent a select group of industry leaders. For more than 80 years CEMA members have worked tirelessly on three main fronts to advance the industry. Standardization of publications, safety, and statistical reporting. For more information, For more information, see <https://www.cemanet.org>